HISTORIAN AWARD JUDGING CRITERIA

Congratulations on your decision to enter the Historian Award competition! As outlined on the Award application, all Historian Award entries that meet the six \(6\) qualifying criteria on the previous page will be judged on the six \(6\) criteria listed below. Below are brief explanations of those criteria and the weight each carry in the overall judging. This information is offered for the sole purpose of creating a greater understanding of the criteria used in the competition. Ultimately, it must be understood that the real triumph of competing for the Historian Award is the creation of the History Presentation itself. In choosing to create a History Presentation, your local PTA or PTSA has created a lasting tribute to the dedication of your members and their efforts in support of public education and the future of all children. The Duval County Council of PTAs/PTSAs applauds all of your efforts on behalf of children, including your creation of a History Presentation.

JUDGING CRITERIA

History Presentations that meet the six \(6\) qualifying criteria on the previous page will be judged as follows:

➤ PTA Activities: 60% of total score

For the purposes of the Historian Award competition, your History Presentation must document activities of your PTA/PTSA. It is up to you to make clear in your documentation of the event the connection the activity has to your PTA/PTSA.

➤ Composition: 10% of total score

The ease of understanding contents of book whether literary, photographic, artistic, or any combination of these accepted styles. Effective organization, picture captions or descriptions, adequate, clear explanation of events, and/or clear artistic interpretations, etc.

➤ Originality: 10% of total score

Creativity, choice of theme, colorful, hand-made (if a scrapbook is submitted), use of materials, cover, etc.

➤ Chronological Order (Calendar of Events): 10% of total score

Local PTAs/PTSAs may choose to begin their Historian documentation at any logical point in time (e.g. election of officers, start of school year, etc.) then documentation must follow the calendar from that point on.

➤ Appearance of Contents: 10% of total score

Neatness; organization of materials on page; if a theme is used, the continuity of the theme throughout the book; continuity of appearance in general; etc.

IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING FAILURE TO QUALIFY FOR JUDGING

Late entries cannot be accepted.

All Historian Award entries must meet the very specific SIX (6) CRITERIA given on the Historian Award application in order to QUALIFY for judging. Please take the time to read these criteria carefully to ensure your History Presentation qualifies for judging.

The first three items with an * MUST BE the FIRST THREE ITEMS included in your entry in 1-2-3 order.

FAILURE TO USE THE PTA SERVICE MARK CORRECTLY will keep your entry from being judged. You MAY NOT use periods, commas, hyphens, or lowercase letters when referring to PTA. This is in keeping with Florida PTA and National PTA guidelines. Service mark usage guidelines may be found at the Florida PTA website and in the Florida PTA and National PTA kits of materials.

ALL qualified History Books entered by the deadline WILL receive a Certificate of Participation following the Presidents' and Principals' Virtual Celebration in May.

THANK YOU
